Adoption saves lives!

Yoko is a 27 pound, sweet, one-year-old mixed breed girl. She will need patience and training. She and a buddy were running wild in our area and were picked up by Animal Control, and were not re-claimed.

Blue is a 2- $\frac{1}{4}$ year old, 63 lb. female, Shepherd/Siberian Husky mix. She has gorgeous captivating blue eyes. She walks well on leash and will sit nicely for a treat.

Ellie is a beautiful 26-month-old, Pit Mix. She is a very happy, friendly, energetic girl and loves to jump in your lap for attention. She has a lot of energy and would appreciate a fenced-in yard where she could play.

Shelter and adoption inquiries please call the

New Shelter News

Concurrent with the on-going feasibility study, our Design Committee is in process of choosing an architect and finalizing the floor plans for the shelter.

This process includes accessing various plans from other shelters and input from other people.

Also, members of the design team will soon be meeting with shelter staff and others knowledgeable about shelter operations for their input.

For MCFA questions please email us at mcf37885@gmail.com.
Your inquiries will be funneled out to the appropriate contact daily.

NEW SPAY IT FORWARD PROGRAM! Kicks off on September 27th

In 2009 the intake at the Monroe County shelter was 5909.
In 2019 the intake was 1947.

The MCFA SNAP (Spay-Neuter Assistance Program) free voucher program has been the major contributor of lowering these numbers for the past 10 years

SPAY IT FORWARD!
