Adoption saves lives!

Maggie is a 1-1/2-year-old, 49-pound spayed mixed breed. Maggie can be tentative at first meeting, but she loves attention. She still has the youthful energy of a puppy and her tail wags non-stop. She would be best in a home with a high fence and would benefit greatly from some general training.

MCFA New Shelter Updates

- The Plat covering the land being donated by Dr. Kefauver was submitted to him last Thursday and he has approved it.
- The land consist of 3.268 acres on Kefauver Lane located between the Dollar Tree and the gate going into the formal Kefauver property where the existing shelter is located.
- The next step is for Sterling Engineers to submit the Plat to the Monroe County Planning Commissioner for approval.
- A sign indicating the Future Home of the Monroe County Friends of Animal Shelter should be erected in the very near future.
