

MCFA Capital Campaign
"Raising the Roof,
Raising Hope for Animals
has almost reached 75% of funds
needed to build new animal shelter

Our dream of building a new animal shelter for stray and abandoned animals in the region is closer to becoming a reality! As of this week, our campaign total exceeds $3.2 million, 75% toward reaching our goal. Thanks to generous friends and animal lovers throughout the region, we continue to move closer to reaching our goal of $4.3 million. Once we raise these remaining funds, we will begin construction sometime in 2023.

We are thrilled to announce that we are at 75% of the way toward the $4.3 million needed to build our new shelter.

Why We Give!

Cathy and Jim Barrett:

Gifts and pledges now total $3,207,425

As you may know, last week we reported that we had nearly 200 animals waiting to get into our shelter. Sadly, our current facility is not equipped to accommodate these animals. Not only will our new shelter have more space for more animals, but MCFA will be able to give more stray and abandoned animals the loving care they deserve. We will be able to provide them shelter in safer, cleaner, and more comfortable spaces. And each family seeking a new pet will have a dedicated space to spend time getting to know their new family member.

Check out our new campaign video, which shows how inadequate and inefficient our current shelter is, and how the new facility will dramatically improve our services and capacity:

"My husband and I have been active volunteers for MCFA for twelve years. Our various volunteer roles over the years have required us to spend a lot of time at the shelter.

All that time at the shelter has made it obvious to us that a new shelter is badly needed. It is a deteriorating, small, cramped, often over capacity facility that just is not a nice place to work or visit. "

"We look forward to the day we can come to a shelter that is a pleasant place to work and where the animals are properly housed and receiving very good care.

Jim and I are donating to the new shelter campaign to make that day happen!"

Thank you Cathy and Jim for all you do!

Did you know there are opportunities to name special areas within the shelter in honor of a beloved family member or pet?
